Greg Butterfield Appointed Newest Member of AxisPointe's Board of Directors

With more than 23 years of executive level experience in the software industry, Butterfield brings an extensive track record of business growth and financial prosperity to the company

SALT LAKE CITY – Sept. 10, 2008 — AxisPointe, Inc., the leader in facility asset management and outsourced post-construction customer service, announced today the addition of Greg Butterfield to its board of directors. Butterfield is currently managing partner of SageCreek Partners, a world-wide network of executives focused on accelerating business development, routes to market, and capital strategies for early and mid-sized technology companies.

“Greg’s reputation and expertise in the software industry is irrefutable. He brings a wealth of experience and knowledge that we foresee will assist us in reaching our aggressive financial and business milestones,” said Andrew K. Smith, AxisPointe President. “We are honored to have him join our board and look forward to his guidance, insight, and hands-on assistance in taking our business to the next level.”

Prior to SageCreek, Butterfield was group president at Symantec and CEO of Altiris, where he led the company to eight consecutive years of revenue growth and profitability; from $3 million in annual revenue to more than $300 million. Butterfield also held executive positions in the software industry with companies such as Vinca Corporation, Novell and WordPerfect Corporation.

He won the 2002 Ernst and Young Entrepreneur of the Year award and served as the chairman of the board of the Utah Information Technology Association from 2003 to 2005. Butterfield received a bachelors of science in business administration, finance from Brigham Young University.

“I am excited to join the AxisPointe board of directors. AxisPointe is an industry leader on the forefront of technology and this made it a perfect fit for me,” said Butterfield. “I am eager to be a part of their next stages of financial growth and look forward to working with the AxisPointe executive team on all fronts.”

About AxisPointe

AxisPointe's outsourced post-construction services eliminate the hassle, risk, and unnecessary cost during the builder warranty period. The company specializes in customized closing packets, buyer orientation and walkthrough, punch list management, warranty callback processing, service ticketing, work order management, and other warranty-related items.

AxisFM by AxisPointe is a facility asset lifecycle management system that enables controlled and organized growth, all-inclusive visibility, data-driven decision making, and bridges the gap between business officers and facility managers. Specializing in capital asset management, work management, and space management, AxisFM has fused and simplified the core facility management functions into a single, web-based, on-demand system. With AxisFM, organizations of all types and sizes can optimize their facility portfolios and eliminate the need for costly, on-going facility condition assessments.
